What's Happening

Welcome to the September issue of Let's Go Dancing.

There are lots of pictures from the Cabaret for you to enjoy in this issue. Thank you to Susanne Horvat for providing additional photographs of this event.

Delving back into the archives, there is a tribute to Joe Lewis starting on page 16 which I hope you will find interesting. Also, for all the round dancers, did you ever wonder how the term a "Tamara turn" came about, check out page 19. Is it fact or fanciful fiction??

The 42nd NSW State Square & Round Dance Convention at Wentworth Falls will be running at the end of the month. If you haven't registered there is still time. Go to the website at www.2020sdconvention.com to register or you can purchase session tickets for a day or an individual session.

The lovely Cathy & Jenny will be providing meals on-site at the convention as well as delicious snacks during the day.

Theme night will be Sunday night, so get out those outfits from the 1920's to reminisce on a beautiful bygone era.

I would love to hear from readers what information they would like to see included in the magazine. Until next time

Ros

NSW President's Report

Our 42nd NSW State Square & Round Dance Convention will be the next event on the SARDA calendar. I hope you have all registered? As it is a state convention session tickets will be available for the whole day and for individual sessions if you can't make the whole weekend. Meals will be available on-site each night. Please be assured that Covid protocols and procedures will be in place for dancers safety and well being.

The " Back to the Sixties" Cabaret went off well with just under one hundred dancers enjoying the calling talents of Brian Hotchkies. Anne Glazier, Helen and Anna-Lee Hodalj provided a mixture of round dances between the square dance brackets.

Celebrating sixty-one years of calling is an amazing achievement and I was pleased to note some of the highlights of Brian's calling career. We were delighted to also have Evan and Carla speak about how their lives had been influenced growing up with Brian as their dad. Some interesting pictures of Brian were shared thanks to Wendy. Dinner was catered by the very able Jenny and Cathy Goon-Pan. They provided some warming main course dishes followed by delicious desserts.

Whilst most clubs have returned to dancing it is still important to check with leaders in regard to Covid protocols, as venue hirers have different requirements that leaders must follow. Callers, cuers and leaders there is still time to claim your $200 stimulus grant for 2022 if you haven't already done so.

Betty Johnson was the Publicity Officer of the Square Dance Society many, many years ago. She always said, "When you come to a square dance you leave your worries at the door and forget to collect them at the end of the night." It is well worth remembering that when you come to the dance immerse yourself in the fun and fellowship that square dancing provides.

See you on the dance floor

CARPENTER & CO.

Caller: Gary Carpenter Assistant: Wendy Alexander

I'm home for a visit between trips. Wendy has been taking great care of the club while I have been travelling the globe and will be doing so again. Numbers have been down due to the weather, travel (yes, there are others in the club that travel) and illnesses. Some like to dance every bracket, others prefer to do more socialising but everyone appears to be having a great time. For those travelling, it's great to see their pictures on Facebook. Wendy brought along a photo from one of our early dress-up nights, 1983, and it was great to see some faces I haven't seen for some time. Some still come along, some have moved on from dancing, others to their next life. Some of us have grown in height, others (like me) grew sideways. It was a great bit of nostalgia. (pic page 9)

As for my travels, I've just come back from Bali, It was warm and dry and the Balinese were happy to start seeing tourists back in town. The Australian dollar converts very much in our favour, take out $100 and you become a millionaire. Out amongst the locals $3 will get you a plate of chicken noodles, $2.50 a Bintang stubby and $10 a one hour massage. We did a couple of day trips with local drivers ($70 for the day) and went to a turtle nursery, swam with dolphins, various temples and palaces, markets, snorkelling (Blue Lagoon movie set) etc. Very relaxing. Back in the cold for a fortnight then we are heading to the USA.

Birthdays for August. A big happy 80th to Ian Gray

GUYS & DOLLS

Arthur Rae & Juliana Lai

Cold & wet weather has continued in our region. However, it has failed to dampen the spirits of our enthusiastic dancers.

Also, Guys & Dolls posted on Facebook during the month, to acknowledge the 89th birthday of Tedda Brooks, the founder of Guys & Dolls Square Dance club, & to honour his contribution to square dancing, over several decades. Thank you Tedda Brooks for your ongoing support of Guys & Dolls. Thank you also to Guys & Dolls dancers, without whose support, the club would not continue to operate.

HILLBILLIES

Caller: Vickie Dean

Not much to report as Vickie has been overseas. She enjoyed Switzerland along with the members of her band and had the bonus of going to Ireland as well. We are back now dancing with numbers slightly down, a few with sickness. Kathy and Bill away again this time to Gunnedah - they certainly get around. Happy birthday wishes to our young Vickie and David.

KNEE DEEP SQUARES

Chris & Linda Froggatt

Everyone enjoyed dancing to Chris's singing calls in tribute to Judith Durham and Olivia Newton John. Such legendary Aussie voices leaving a legacy of iconic songs for us all. Several members travelled to Queensland and enjoyed the State Conventions and club visits, as well as Hervey Bay.

Club dancing was once again interrupted by Covid in August. We appreciate everyone's understanding of the cancellation on short notice, but are happy with our safety-first policy.

Jenny and Brian off to Perth visiting family. Great to see Martin and Janette visiting our Monday Plus, and (dancing friends of Carol and Rick from Perth) Ian and Suzanne dropped in to Friday Mainstream en-route to further travel up north.

Get well wishes to Shirley & Tristan, Norm, Virginia, Christiane, Pam and Ian. Good to hear Saroya, Jan, Anne, Lyndall and Marina are recovering well and looking forward to dancing again soon. Happy birthdays: Lance, Phil, Virginia, Marian, Anne, Faye.

Happy Father's Day to all the Dads. Stay safe everyone

MOUNTAIN DEVILS

Caller: David Todd

We really enjoyed the Cabaret. Congratulations to Susanne on the combined Panthers, Mountain Devils and Tamworth Cloverleaf table for having the best decorated table judged by Frankie & Carla Shields. Trivia about Brian was difficult for us but the Hillbillies and Tartan Promenaders came up trumps on this one. Some of our dancers went travelling to enjoy dancing at Tamworth. Good to see Barbara back dancing again. Looking forward to lots of square and round dancing this month and the state convention. Happy Fathers' Day to all the significant males who have influenced and been part of the life of a child.

PANTHER SQUARES

Caller: Maree Huffadine

NSW State Convention is just around the corner and as always there is a line up of great callers. It will be another wonderful weekend meeting up with friends and an opportunity to visit our beautiful Blue Mountains.

Our club received some sad news with the passing of Margaret who danced at Panthers for many years and Lynda, who does some calling at Panthers & Mountain Devils, with the passing of her father. Our thoughts, condolences and prayers are with both of their families and friends.

Birthday greetings to Ralph, Pam, and Gloria.

SUMMERLAND LARRIKINS

Caller: Frances Hickson

John & Frances travelled to the SARDA Cabaret Dance in Sydney. They then followed up by travelling to the Queensland State Convention the following weekend. Club night is still buzzing and everyone is enjoying the dancing. Unfortunately, one of our past dancers passed away, Brian Hyde. Happy birthday Rob, JD. Happy Wedding Anniversary Rob & Jean.

TAMWORTH CLOVERLEAF DANCERS

Publicity/Promotion: Judy. Caller: Malcolm Turnbull

Since Mal has taken over the calling duties, three new dancers; Sue, Sam and Sheila (all ladies) are progressing well with learning the Basics.

The club will introduce a dedicated beginner's class later in the year and Judy has contacted our local community radio station, FM 88.9 in the hope of attracting new dancers. We are the only square dance club in the Country Music Capital, so fingers crossed.

Tuesday 23 August, we had the pleasure of hosting the one and only Mr. Brian Hotchkies for a night of fun and dancing as Brian travelled north to Hervey Bay. The atmosphere was buzzing with dancers venturing from down south and also from Armidale.

The Tamworth Cloverleaf Dancers meet every Monday night at The Baptist Church hall. If you are travelling through, please join us for a fun night of dancing.

TARTAN PROMENADERS

Caller: Les Heaton Chairperson: Violet

What a privilege to be part of Brian Hotchkies celebrating his wonderful milestone. What an achievement – 61 years as a square dance caller, both nationally and internationally. Sixteen dancers from Tartan Promenaders travelled to Emu Plains for this special cabaret, organized by David, Rosalind and the SARDA team. The event was very well organized – great meal, great venue, great dancing and great company.

Our group joined the tables together, which added to our enjoyment. Bev Ranclaud decorated the table in the “sixties” theme. A miniature Combi completed the setting. A variety of nibblies were spread around the table to share during the afternoon and evening dances. Brian’s calling was his usual high standard and variety. Congratulations Brian. You are a legend!

Welcome back to Rachael, Warwick and Joyce. Welcome to our visitors – Anne & Rob, Lesley, Richard, Erica & George. Birthday wishes to Garry who brought his three grandchildren to see why square dancing is such fun.

Get well wishes to Geoff and Lisa. The conversations are now revolving around our forthcoming Hunter Valley weekend. It will be a new experience for some of our dancers.

TOP CATS SQUARE & ROUND DANCE CLUB

Caller/Cuer: Brett Gill

Congratulations to Ken, first-time granddad - We hope you & your family have many happy memories (and firsts) to come. August/September is a busy time for birthdays - To those celebrating, have a great time :). Best wishes to Mary, participating in a local musical production - We hope you have a great time & that the show is a success. Thanks to those who joined us in August for our Singing Call Request Night - Some great choices made for a night full of song & dance! Stephen from Queanbeyan has become a regular at our monthly dances & we thank him for making the journey up & back to join us on the dance floor. For our September social (10th Sept), wear something bright to celebrate the arrival of Spring - For our October social (8th Oct), wear something black & white. Some forward dates for your diaries: Our Saturday XMAS dance will be held on 10th Dec - Our Friday Xmas Dance will be held on 16th Dec. Our beginner square dance class of 2022 are having lots of fun learning new moves & consolidating those already taught - We are blessed to have such a wonderful group - Thanks to those from our Round Dance group on the same night who attend early to ably assist our beginner square dancers. Our various Round Dance classes are travelling along nicely. Congratulations to Daniel & Jennifer from our Monday Cha-Cha class for tying the knot - We hope you have a fantastic future together :)

Solo Dancers

The July 30th Cabaret Dance, at Emu Plains, celebrating 61 years of calling by Brian Hotchkies was well worth attending. Really lovely catching up with people, some of whom I've not seen for a couple of years. Besides flying to Sydney and back, the train and bus rides, all added to the weekends enjoyment. Special thanks to fellow solo dancer, Susanne, who kindly picked me up from the airport and provided lunch and also transported me to the dance and my motel. Then, on the Sunday Susanne took me to Ros and David's home where I met up with other square dancers and enjoyed a lovely lunch. It is with much appreciation and gratitude to Susanne, Ros and David and to all the other dancers who made my Sydney trip memorable.

Unfortunately, within the following week, Mr Covid caught up with me and I was grounded for seven days. My ears have been the worst affected and I am still experiencing hearing discomfort. The positive side is that I am supposed to be immune for at least four weeks, so all is looking good for the busy month of square dancing in September.

Thank you, Violet, from Newcastle, for giving me updated information. I have booked into the recommended Motel and will be attending the Newcastle weekend, as well as the Woolgoolga and Wentworth Falls weekends.

If any Solo Dancer would like one of the Solo Ribbons, I will have some available, for free, at these dances. All the best to everyone, enjoy your dancing.

Condolences to Estelle for the recent loss of her brother. Fantastic to see Barbara T back on the dance floor. Get well wishes to the many who are sick at present. It was great to hear from Jenny/Terry that Terry is recovering well after his recent Cancer-related operation. Some of our club members are looking forward to dancing at the NSW state convention in October. Happy travels to those doing some interstate holidaying - We hope the weather is kind to you. A big thank you to everyone for your ongoing support across our various nights :) More news to follow next month.

Tribute to Joe Lewis

How many of you have an old 78 of Square Dances called by Joe Lewis. It seems that we have collected a few in the NSW Archives. The following article was taken from the February 1984 and March 1993 issue of the South Pacific Square Dance Review.

Joe Lewis first visited Australia in 1950 to promote square dancing. During that visit Joe trained a team of dancers so that they could give an exhibition of square dancing to the public. This exhibition was at David Jones' restaurant, Elizabeth Street Store, Sydney. The exhibitions were such a success that Sydney Dance Studios received many requests to teach square dancing. Joe and his wife Claire were only too happy to help out.

In 1951 the Australian Women's Weekly and large city stores sponsored a second visit by Joe and Claire.

Joe came to Australia on his third visit arriving at Mascot Sydney on the overseas airliner "Discovery" on Saturday 31st October 1953. During the wait for the plane to land and Joe to emerge through customs, the lounge at the overseas terminal overflowed as square dancers continued to arrive to welcome him.

There were callers from every Sydney Square Dance club as well as many interstate visitors. Among them were Jim Vickers-Willis, Gary Cohen, Jim Burke, Ron Jones, Vince Spillane, David Rintel, and leading Australian dance promoters, Barry Brennan Jnr, from Earls Court, Melbourne, Joe Loves of Paradance and Australian National Square Dance Club fame, Sydney, and Jack Keating of Keating's Ballrooms, Sydney.

Joe's first words on emerging from customs and seeing such a large crowd were "Why, howdy folks; have you got those squares ready?"

Joe who was affectionately known as "Grand-Pappy" of Australian square dancing, showed the dancers how very simply they could miss out on one of the main essentials of square dancing. "Having a happy time, even with beginners' dances". His recipe for square dancing - "Get them dancing" - "Keep them dancing" - "Keep them happy".

The Paradance Ballroom at Lidcombe stood in readiness to say "Bon Voyage" on behalf of square dancers from coast to coast of our island continent to Joe Lewis, on Friday, 18th December, 1953.

The hall was filled to capacity and there was no stopping Joe Lewis. In between brackets while all and sundry sat on the floor with their picnic suppers, he brought surprise after surprise out of his bag of acts, and when everyone was clamouring for more he would put on his best "deadpan" and say.... "Let's dance," throwing the whole place~ into a pandemonium of laughter and gaiety. "DON'T GO, JOE"

At the end of the evening he was besieged with square dance enthusiasts who wanted commemorative autographs.

Following is a passage taken from a letter published in the "National Square Dancer" about Joe Lewis.

"Having been with Joe Lewis for some time I can truthfully say that it has not been my pleasure to meet a finer person. His complete knowledge of square dancing will be of immeasurable value to us, and I am sure that if we follow the advice he is so gladly giving, then square dancing will be truly a part of the lives of nearly every family in Australia.

"With his kindly smile and unfailing good humour, coupled with a firmness that comes from a completely organised mind, Joe has brought to us the real square dancing that has taken him 15 years to perfect."

John Brennan, President, National Square Dance Club of Australia.

Joe's fourth and last visit to Australia was in April 1984 when the Committee of the 25th Australian National "Silver Jubilee" Square Dance Convention held in Canberra invited him along with his wife Claire to be the guest of honour at that convention.

Droplet by Eileen Boyd

The tiny clear droplet,
With a mind of its own,
Jumped into the river
For places unknown.

There was all kinds of fish,
Coloured red, black and white.
The croaking green frogs,
Were a special delight.

"Swim to the Ocean"
Its Mother had said.
But, this little Droplet
Went upstream, instead.

The tiny clear droplet
Was swimming upstream
But, it hadn't moved far
From where it had been.

Smooth, shiny rocks
And clean, gritty sand,
The river was magic,
Much better than land.

A clap of wild thunder,
The rain tumbled down.
The river was swollen,
All murky and brown.

Droplet, tried to resist -But, the current was strong. The trip to the Ocean Well, it didn't take long.

“LA RONDE” (The Round Dancer)

This month, I would like to delve back a little and pass on to you a glimpse of a girl whose name we all know: “TAMARA”

Our dance history is dotted with interesting people, who have loved the dance and added their own touch of colour in passing. This is the story of Tamara, as related by that grand master, Dr. Lloyd "Pappy" Shaw.

"Each summer my dancers are a part of the famous Central City Play House Festival. We hold forth in the old Williams' livery stable which has been roughly fitted up for us, and which is opposite the famous old miners' Opera House, where metropolitan opera stars now present delightful performances for two or three weeks each summer. After one of our performances many years ago one of my dancers came to me and said there was a girl who wanted to talk to me. When she arrived she was dressed in hiking clothes, very simply, and she told me how much she liked our dancing.

"You wouldn't know me, but I am working over ,at the Teller House.' That was the famous old mining camp hotel, used by the opera association as the centre of their social life. 'I do a little singing there,' she added, 'and I love your dances very much. Do you mind if I come over often?'

Suddenly I realised who she was. This humble, simple girl was the much advertised Tamara, special star of the Teller House Night Club. She was a great Broadway star, where she introduced and made popular songs such as 'Smoke Gets In Your Eyes'.

Tamara, with other notables, was killed in an air crash the year America entered the war. "Her simplicity was completely disarming. She told me she had been a refugee from White Russia and she was afraid the old native dances she had loved there were not being kept alive. 'Most folk dancers I have seen in this country are rather stiff and unnatural. But it seems to me your young dancers have the real spirit. Would you please let me come to your rehearsals and let me teach you some of our dances, so that you will be able to keep them alive?'

"And what delightful hours we had with her! Perhaps the favourite of the dances she left with us was a waltz which we always called the Tamara Waltz. Although it is not very' simple, many people have learned it from us and we have enjoyed seeing it spread from place to place."

Dancers everywhere have got themselves in knots and laughed at the tangle as they mastered the Tamara turn. May your dancing be the richer for this story of a young girl who, too, loved to dance.

EMERGENCY CALL FOR MEDICAL AID

- 1 When a dancer goes down, a second dancer attends him/her.
- 2 Remaining couples join hands and take a step backward. This will allow the injured person and attendant air and room.
- 3 Raise joined hands as high as possible in the form of an arched circle.
- 4 On seeing this signal, the caller or hall monitor will immediately place an Emergency Call for Medical Aid.
